Learn Holistic Therapy Courses To Keep You Healthy and Fit.

The greatest gift you can give your family and the world is a healthy you

Most natural ways to keep your family and friends away from side effects of drugs as after learning of these natural healthy ways of living with nature you will be able to live better life without medicines.

These methods are very easy to learn as any background candidates can learn these systems of alternative therapies yoga systems. Drugless, painless and cost effectiveness are the key features of learning this system as after learning you can not only keep your family and neighborhood healthy but also earn by providing these services to needy and old age people for their daily health requirements of exercising.

It gives me immense pleasure in welcoming you to the Institute of Alternative Medicines Training Treatment & Research, Jodhpur, India on a journey of self-enlightenment & discovery. With the world on the threshold of path breaking changes in the field of health & medicine, there is a growing realization that contrary to previously held beliefs; conventional medicine (the medicine that most people are familiar with: antibiotics, surgery, etc.) cannot solve all our health problems. Modern Scientific research, as well as public awareness is busy establishing that many alternative medical treatments are more effective, economical, and less invasive & harmful than conventional

One should understand the fact that these alternative therapies are not substitute of mainstream treatment methods and can't used in case of emergency and it is necessary to take usual medical care as per your therapists advice. This training is purely customized for creating awareness of our ancient traditional knowledge of our ancestors and not for obtaining or getting any benefits from local/state/central governments.

Aarogya's Acupressure yoga Naturopathy and holistic sciences Training, Treatment & Research Centre offered comprehensive acupressure trainings. The centre provides high-quality education that supports each student's professional and personal goals in a setting that encourages communication, respect, confidentiality and safety for everyone.

As alternative therapies gain greater acceptance and recognition, the ancient hands-on practice of acupressure is becoming a vital part of the future of healthcare.

We are pleased to introduce our self as a leading training centre of natural & alternative therapies that conducts various coursed by following methods: (a) Regular (b) Correspondence (c) Camp (d) Internet./ One line...../ Table batch...

These therapies, which is a part of Alternative therapy, due to its effective results it is very prevalent now a days. By these Courses you are not contributing to yourself & your family, but also the health systems of whole world.

You can get following benefits after completion of these courses. You can give your services at any naturopathic treatment Hospitals. You can establish your own center. Our centre can guide you for jobs & guidance. You can get acupressure instruments manufactured by our company at a concessional price at your nearest Aarogya Mandir Branch.
